Ingredients

- 1 large eggplant
- 1 whole onion
- 2 bell peppers (colored)
- 6 oz baby corn
- 1 oz dried shiitake mushrooms
- 4 small red potatoes
- 1 large piece ginger
- 1 handful basil
- 1 cup mixed nuts (almonds, cashews, hazelnuts and pecans; unsalted)
- Beef chunks
- 1 curry stick/block
- Cinnamon, thyme and mushroom seasoning
- 4 cloves garlic
- 1 tsp each cumin, oregano and cardamom
- About 1 cup broth + 1 cup water, as needed
- 2 tsp sugar
- Salt, to taste

Directions

1. Wash the eggplant and cut into small cubes. Soak the dried mushrooms in salted water to rehydrate.
2. In a large pot, sauté the meat with about 1/4 tsp baking soda and spices, including ginger and garlic. Add water and cook until the meat is tender.
3. Once the cooking liquid has reduced, add ground mixed nuts; the mixture will thicken quickly.
4. Add onion and habanero/bell peppers and sauté briefly. Add broth and water, then season to taste.
5. Add sugar, salt, potatoes, mushrooms and eggplant. Cook for about 15-20 minutes over medium heat.
6. After about 15 minutes, add baby corn. Cook about 10 minutes more, adding bell peppers in the final 2 minutes.
7. Add basil and remove from the stove.
